Ian Davies

Translator and Language Teacher (English, French, Italian, Spanish)

I'm a highly motivated language professional with a particular interest in science and technology. I translate French, Italian and Spanish into my English mother tongue at 2000-2500 words per day, with over 1.5 million words translated to date. I am also experienced with a range of CAT tools and fluent in several programming languages. I've lived in six countries and have a wealth of cross-cultural experience.
